

PSYCG 1508 : Fundamentals of APA Style

This course introduces the student to the basic guidelines for the correct usage of the APA style in writing. The course provides a comprehensive overview of the publication manual of the American Psychological Association seventh edition. Throughout the quarter, participants in this course will increase their familiarity with the APA style guidelines through an in-depth examination of each chapter of the manual.

College

Clinical Psychology Program

Credits 1.0