

PSYCG 1509 : Fundamentals of Graduate Level Writing

This course serves as a broad overview of basic skills necessary for graduate-level writing; it provides a review of fundamental grammatical rules and principles, including but not limited to: sentence structure, spelling, punctuation, tense shifting, transitions, subject-pronoun agreement, and use of formal tone. Participants in this course will have the opportunity for in-class writing as well as peer editing.

College

Clinical Psychology Program

Credits 1.0